CLASS REUNION SYNOPSIS

To the best of everyones recollection, our 5th year class reunion was held in 1963 on a Sunday afternoon at J.C. Park. It was a carry in picnic with spouses and children present.

The 10th year reunion was chaired by Sheron Conner Littlejohn. A dinner dance was held at Roland's Lounge (formerly the Plantation) in Auburn on 8-3-68 with 22 class members present. Denny Ketzenberger had so much "fun" he danced the twist.

The 15th year class reunion was co-chaired by Jane Gingrich Russell and Susan Knauer Whetstone. They planned a Hawaiian Luau for us on 8-4-73 in the parking lot of the Irish Inn in Angola. The price was $12.00 per couple. If memory serves correctly, the mosquitos were hungry and it was freezing. Jane had rented one (1) room for the whole class. It was cozy to say the least. Fred and Gretchen Brown invited everyone back to Auburn to their home where we thawed out and talked into the morning.

The 20th reunion was held on 7-29-78 in a hospitality room upstairs at the ACD Museum. Halls Catering supplied the dinner and Susan Knauer Whetstone chaired the well planned, well attended event. Thirty nine (39) class members were present. Class members toured our former high school, (now elementary school), trying to figure out what classrooms used to be what. Steve and Roberta Andres opened their home after the dinner dance, and many class members had lots more "fun". To which Denny Ketzenberger and Jane Ketel Oster would attest.

Fred Brown chaired the 25th reunion on 7-30-88 at Greenhurst Country Club in Auburn. Thirty three (33) class members were present. Earlier in the day, tennis and golf were played by many class members. We met for lunch at Greenhurst Country Club also. A dance was held after the dinner. On Sunday afternoon David and Mary Cline Southern invited the class members to their home for a picnic and a day of swimming. Many members attended and voted to try and have a picnic the day after the 30th class reunion.
